

CONSTITUTION OF THE REDEEMER UNIVERSITY STUDENT SENATE

Revised and Updated February 2021
Date of Effect: March 1st 2021

ARTICLE 1: NAME

- 1.1. The name of this body shall be the Redeemer University Student Senate, hereinafter “Student Senate” or “Senate.”

ARTICLE 2: PREAMBLE

- 2.1. The Redeemer University Student Senate strives to glorify God through all of its actions, seeking to advance His kingdom and to promote this spirit of service within the student body.
- 2.2. The Student Senate represents the student body. With this in mind, the Student Senate seeks to ensure that all members of the University community remain responsive to student needs and interests. As well, the Student Senate seeks to stimulate school spirit and participation within the student body.
- 2.3. The Student Senate derives its authority from the student body and thus is primarily responsible and accountable to it for its actions.
- 2.4. The Student Senate seeks mutual cooperation with the Board of Governors, President of the University, Dean of Students, and the administration. Together we shall serve as a means to foster and nurture all aspects of student life in supporting the confessional direction of Redeemer University as outlined in Redeemer University’s official Mission, Institutional Purpose, and Statement of Basis and Principles.

ARTICLE 3: MEMBERS

- 3.1. The membership of the Senate shall consist of the duly elected members, four of which shall be Executive members (President; Vice President of Student Affairs; Vice President of Finance; and Vice President of Communication), three of which shall be General Senators (Activities Coordinator; Spiritual Events Coordinator; and Clubs Coordinator), as well as three First-Year Senators appointed from the first-year class (Assistant to the Vice President of Student Affairs; Assistant to the Vice President of Finance; and Assistant to the Vice President of Communication).
- 3.2. The student body shall annually elect the four members of the Executive within two weeks of the end of the February Reading Break, and shall elect three General Senators in the two weeks following the completion of the Executive elections. The First-Year Senators shall be appointed in early September to serve that year.

- 3.3. All full-time Redeemer University students are eligible for election to the Senate.
- 3.3.1. All Student Senate members must be in agreement with the official Mission, Institutional Purpose, and Statement of Basis and Principles of Redeemer University, and willing to carry out their roles on Student Senate in accordance with them.
- 3.3.2. All Student Senate members must be in good academic standing with a minimum CGPA of 6.00.
- 3.3.3. The President must be entering his or her third or subsequent full-time year of post-secondary education when taking office, and must have served on Student Senate in the past.
- 3.3.4. If no former member of Student Senate has been nominated for the position of President, any student entering his or her third, fourth, or fifth year may run for office.
- 3.3.5. All members of the Executive must have been enrolled in a full-time course load at Redeemer University for an entire academic year before taking office and during their year in office.
- 3.3.6. Student Senate members elected in the regular annual elections shall take office the day after the last exam of the winter semester.
- 3.3.7. The Student Senate members elected or appointed after the prescribed period in 3.2 shall cease to be in office on the same date as the rest of the Student Senate.
- 3.3.8. The newly elected or appointed Senate members shall attend the current Senate meetings.

ARTICLE 4: MEETINGS

- 4.1. The Student Senate shall meet at least once preceding the commencement of the academic year and meet once per week during the academic year, except during exams, holiday breaks, and reading break, or in the case of inclement weather when the University is closed. The President may cancel any meeting at his or her discretion.
- 4.2. Meetings shall be publicly announced in advance and shall be open to all members of the Redeemer University community, with the exception of in-camera sessions.

ARTICLE 5: COMMITTEES

- 5.1. The Student Senate shall establish various committees as required. The standing Committees of the Student Senate are those named in the By-Laws appended to this constitution. The Student Senate shall appoint other ad hoc committees if they become necessary.

5.1.1. All students are eligible for membership on Student Senate Committees. Any member of the student body may nominate a student, including him- or herself. All Committee appointments are subject to approval by the Student Senate.

5.1.2. All Committees of the Student Senate shall regularly present reports to the Student Senate regarding all of their activities.

5.2. Student appointments to any Redeemer Committee outside of the Student Senate shall be endorsed by the Student Senate President with the guidance of the Dean of Students.

5.2.1. All students on Redeemer Committees representing the student body and chosen by the Student Senate shall communicate regularly with the Vice President of Student Affairs.

ARTICLE 6: AMENDMENT

6.1. Proposed amendments to this constitution may be considered by the Student Senate, provided notice has been given at a previous regular meeting.

6.2. Amendments approved by a two-thirds vote of the Student Senate shall be put to a vote by the student body. A two-thirds majority of the voting student body shall be required to enact the amendments.

6.3. The By-Laws appended to this constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the Student Senate, provided notice of the proposed change was given at the previous meeting. As well, notice of the proposed amendment shall be given to the student body and at least one week shall be given for response from the student body.

6.4. Amendments to the Constitution or its By-Laws shall be drafted containing a date of effect clause. The date of effect clause shall stipulate upon what day, month and year the proposed amendments shall take effect.

The fundraiser shall not conflict with any other fundraisers during that time. The First-Year Senators are expected to consult the Student Senate prior to executing the fundraiser.

Section 4 Impeachment Power

Senators will be impeached if they are not fulfilling their job descriptions as outlined in the Constitution and By-Laws of the Student Senate, refuse to adhere to the University's confessional direction, or are not living in a way that reflects the University's Policy on Life and Conduct or Student Conduct Code.

1. All Student Senate members are expected to uphold the purpose of the Student Senate as outlined in Article 2 of the Constitution, including supporting the confessional direction of the University, as outlined in Redeemer's official Mission, Institutional Purpose, and Statement of Basis and Principles. All Student Senate members are expected to model a Christian lifestyle as exemplary students of Redeemer University, displaying Christian love and leadership, as well as a respect for University rules as written in Redeemer's Conduct Code.

If a Student Senator is not completing their duties as found in the Student Senate Constitution or By-Laws, impeachment proceedings can be initiated by any member of the Executive.

2. If it is discovered that a Senator is not fulfilling their duties or meeting set expectations, the Student Senate President shall call an executive meeting, including the Dean of Students, to determine which is the appropriate response, ranging from a verbal warning to impeachment proceedings. If the executive, by majority vote, determines that impeachment proceedings are necessary, the President will notify the Senator in question of their charges in writing a minimum of 5 days before the executive meeting in order to prepare their response to the charges put forward. If the Senator in question is a member of the executive, he or she shall be entitled to attend and speak at this executive meeting but shall not vote on the question of initiating impeachment proceedings. The Senator in question will then have the opportunity to represent themselves at the meeting. If the President and members of the Executive feel that impeachment proceedings should take place they will be initiated in the presence of the Senator in question.

An impeachment vote will take place at the next regularly scheduled Student Senate meeting. As chair of the meeting, the Student Senate President will explain the reasons why the impeachment vote is taking place and the Senator in question will have the opportunity to represent themselves. Alternatively, if the Student Senator in question does not want to represent themselves, the President will then represent them. The Student Senate will go into an in camera session without the Senator in question to discuss impeachment as well as to vote on the impeachment motion. If two-thirds of the Student Senate vote in favour of the motion, the Senator will be impeached. In the event that the impeachment vote passes, there will be a by-election which will take place under Article III Section 5.

In the event that the Senator in question is the Student Senate President, the Vice President of Student Affairs shall take their role in the impeachment proceedings and as meeting chair during the impeachment vote shall abstain from voting. In the event that the Student Senate President is impeached, the Vice President of Student Affairs shall become acting President (including chairing the remainder of the meeting) until a by election can be held.

ARTICLE 2: SENATE MEETING PROCEDURE, VOTING, ATTENDANCE

Section 1 Meetings and Visitors

All members of the Redeemer University community shall be entitled to attend all Student Senate meetings unless otherwise ordered by the Student Senate. The Student Senate, at its own discretion, may move a meeting in camera to discuss potentially sensitive matters. These in camera sessions shall be recorded for the reference of future Student Senates; however, these discussions shall not be made public to the Redeemer University community.

Visitor input is appreciated and contributing to the discussion is one way for the student body voice to be heard by the Student Senate. If any visitor wishes to contribute to discussions during a public meeting, they must first be acknowledged and given permission to speak by the President. In the case that a visitor is persistently disruptive, the President may at his or her discretion require the offending party to leave.

Section 2 Rules and Procedures

Parliamentary procedure shall be followed in order to conduct business efficiently while protecting two basic rights: the right of the majority to decide and the right of the minority to be heard. As a general rule, Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised shall prevail, except where it is inconsistent with the Constitution, these By-Laws, or any special rules of order that the Student Senate may adopt.

2.2.1. Attendance

Student Senate meetings shall begin at 9:45pm to ensure no conflicts occur with night classes. Attendance will be taken before the devotional period at the beginning of the meeting. Senate members who are unable to attend a regularly scheduled meeting must contact the President who shall decide whether or not the absence is excusable. A member of the Student Senate shall collect a half-absence if he or she is not present when attendance is taken. The member shall be considered absent if not present by the end of the Committee Reports. The Chairperson must approve early dismissal from a Senate meeting.

2.2.2. Voting

A majority of Student Senate members shall constitute a quorum at any Senate meeting. In the regular process of voting in the Student Senate, a simple majority of those in attendance must vote in favour in order to pass the motion. An abstained vote is considered void. The chairperson should not vote except to break a tie. A Student Senate member must abstain from voting if he or she has a conflict of interest.

2.2.3. Order of Business

The usual order of business for regular meetings shall be as follows:

1. Call to Order
2. Attendance
3. Opening Devotions
4. Approval of Previous Minutes
5. Approval of the agenda
6. Executive Reports
 - a. President
 - b. Vice President of Student Affairs
 - c. Vice President of Finance
 - d. Vice President of Communication
7. Committee Reports
 - a. Activities Committee Coordinator
 - b. Spiritual Events Coordinator
 - c. Clubs Coordinator
8. First-Year Senators' Report
9. Ad hoc Committee Reports
10. Unfinished Business
11. New Business
12. Closing Prayer
13. Adjournment

Section 3 Executive Meetings

The Student Senate President may call an Executive meeting at any time. The Student Senate shall be informed of any Executive decision at the next regular meeting. The Student Senate President may call a special meeting of the entire Student Senate as he or she deems necessary.

The Student Senate President must make a reasonable attempt to notify each Student Senate member of a special meeting. For decisions that require an immediate resolution the Student Senate President may individually contact Student Senate Executive members. If three out of four voting Executive members favour the same course of action then the Student Senate President may carry through with that action. The decision must be read into the minutes at the next regular Student Senate meeting. Any Student Senate Executive member may request the decision be delayed until an Executive or regular Student Senate meeting can be convened.

ARTICLE 3: ELECTION POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Section 1 Nominations and Timing

Elections shall be the responsibility of the Vice President of Student Affairs. If the Vice President of Student Affairs is running for election to the Senate again, he or she is responsible to find a capable Senator to coordinate the election.

The offices of the Executive branch of Student Senate shall be filled by the end of the second week after the end of the February Reading Break. The offices of the General Senators shall be filled in the two weeks following the end of the Executive elections.

Candidates for the offices of President, Vice President of Student Affairs, Vice President of Finance, and Vice President of Communication shall be nominated by 10% (based on Full-Time Enrolment) of the student body, rounded to the nearest whole person, as well as receive two nominations from faculty or staff members by the close of nominations. Candidates for the offices of Activities Coordinator, Spiritual Events Coordinator, and Clubs Coordinator shall be nominated by 5% (based on Full- Time Enrolment) of the student body, rounded to the nearest whole person, as well as receive two nominations from faculty or staff members by the close of nominations.

The elections shall take place the week following the close of nominations. Voting shall take place on two consecutive days to ensure that all students have an opportunity to vote.

Section 2 Campaign Procedure

- a. Election procedures and a description of the offices to be filled shall be made available to students at least two weeks prior to the election.
- b. A copy of the poster policy shall be made available to all students running for election prior to the election.
- c. If the required number of Student Senate Executive candidates has not been nominated by the close of nominations, nominations for the vacant candidacies shall run during the General Senator elections.
- d. If any position has not been filled by the end of the General Senator elections, nominations shall remain open at one-week intervals until the required candidates are received.
- e. No posters shall be put up and no campaigning shall begin until nominations have closed. All posters must be removed by 24hrs after the election.
- f. Each candidate shall, on an official form provided by the Student Senate, provide information as to his or her candidacy for the position by the close of nominations. The completed forms shall be made available at the polling station and online.

Section 3 Election Procedure

- a. The polling station shall be located directly outside the Student Senate office.
- b. All voters shall be recorded on an official roster of Redeemer University students. They shall be given a ballot, which they immediately shall complete and place in the ballot box.
- c. Both fulltime and part-time students are eligible to vote.
- d. No campaigning shall be conducted at the polling station by the candidate, a poll worker, or any other student. No posters shall be put up within a ten-metre radius of the polling station.
- e. A single candidate running for a particular position shall be subject to a yes/no vote. A two-thirds majority of votes cast is required in order to be elected in a yes/no vote.
- f. In order to be elected to a Student Senate position, a candidate must receive a majority of votes. A ranked ballot shall be used in the event that a position has more than two candidates running for it. In a ranked ballot vote, the votes for the candidate with the least number of votes are consecutively dropped and reassigned to the next choice until a majority is reached.
- g. After the candidates are notified and the successful candidates have accepted their positions, the results of the election shall be made public. The official election results shall consist of the number of possible voters and the number of votes cast in the election, as well as the final elected/non-elected position of each candidate. By personal request, any student may obtain this information from the Vice President of Student Affairs.
- h. Ballots shall be kept until the end of the academic year. A copy of the order of the tabulated results shall be kept in the appropriate documents and folders belonging to the Vice President of Student Affairs for one calendar year.
- i. Alternative voting arrangements will be made for eligible students who cannot reasonably be expected to vote in-person, including, but not limited to, students on a co-op placement or study abroad program.

Section 4 Referenda

- a. A referendum of the student body may be called on any current or proposed issue or policy, aside from the existence of the Student Senate.
- b. A referendum may be initiated through any member of the Student Senate by a vote of the Student Senate or by a petition containing the signatures of 15% of the student body.
- c. A referendum topic submitted by petition from the student body may be blocked by a vote of 75% of the voting members of the Student Senate.
- d. A referendum must receive a two-thirds majority of votes cast from the voting population in order to be passed.
- e. The results of any referendum shall be binding on the Student Senate as long as a minimum of 25% of the student body vote in the referendum.
- f. The Student Affairs Committee shall meet prior to holding the referendum voting to determine the wording and timing of the referendum. The Committee shall ensure that the wording of the referendum is clear and unambiguous. The Committee decision must be ratified by a two-thirds vote of the Student Senate.
- g. One week must be given for notification of the student body of the official referendum.
- h. Referenda shall be held with regular election voting unless the matter is more urgent or time-sensitive as determined by the Student Senate.

- i. Referenda voting procedure shall be followed pursuant to Article III section 3. j. The results of the referendum shall be made public and available to students immediately after its completion.
- k. A referendum of a similar topic may not be presented for 11 months after a referendum is decided.
- l. No more than two referenda may be held per year, though the Student Senate may allow exceptions.

Section 5 Senator Replacement Procedure

Should a Student Senate member, excluding the Student Senate President, be unable to complete his or her term of office, the Student Senate Executive Appointment Committee shall convene and begin the process for the appointment of a Student Senator (as detailed in section 6) to find a replacement.

Should the Student Senate President be unable to complete his other term of office, the Student Senate Executive, in consultation with the Dean of Students, shall decide the appropriate course of action.

Section 6 Appointment of First-Year Senators

- a. The Student Senate Executive Appointment Committee shall oversee and conduct the appointment process. The Committee shall consist of the Executive members of Student Senate.
- b. The First-Year Senators shall be appointed from the incoming first-year class, defined in Article 1 section 2. The Executive Appointment Committee shall conduct interviews and make the appointments in early September.
- c. The First-Year Senators must be in office before the Student Senate budget meeting.

ARTICLE 4: SENATE STRUCTURE AND COMMITTEES

Section 1 Senate Structure and Standing Committees

Student Senate is divided into five branches, each carrying out a distinct function within the Student Senate structure. Each branch of Student Senate contains its own standing Committee. They are as follows:

- 1. Student Affairs
 - a. Purpose - As the purpose of any student government is to bring forward and represent the interests and concerns of the student body to the Administration and Faculty, the Student Affairs Committee shall serve as a mechanism to receive, discuss, and bring forward student concerns and interests to the Administration and Faculty.
 - b. Membership and Duties
 - i. The Committee shall consist of the Vice President of Student Affairs, the Assistant to the Vice President of Student Affairs, at least one Student Academic Senator, and several students who are recommended by Student Senate to be on the University Committees.

- ii. This Committee's membership shall aim to represent the makeup of the student body. In particular, the Committee shall include a minimum of one male, one female, one on-campus resident, one off-campus resident, and three different departmental majors.
 - iii. Committee membership can expand or decrease upon the recommendation of the Vice President of Student Affairs after consulting with the Student Senate.
 - iv. Representatives shall be appointed by the Vice President of Student Affairs.
 - v. The Assistant to the Vice President of Student Affairs is responsible for taking minutes and distributing them to the members of the Committee and Senate.
